Boys' Preparatory and Kindergarten,

CLAREMONT.

HEAD MISTRESS:

MISS PARNELL

(Cer. College of Preceptors, London; Cambridge University; Trinity College, London).

MISS PARNELL (of Miss Best's School), has much pleasure in informing the inhabitants of Claremont she will re-open Miss Allen's School in February, as a First Class Educational Establishment, with the latest methods of instruction, on the same principle as the English High Schools.

The General Course of Study, in which assistance will be given by Miss G. Walton, B.A., includes English, Latin, and Modern Languages (French and German). There will also be a special Art and Music Branch; the former will embrace Drawing, Painting, Oil and Water Colors, Chip and Wood Carving, Clay Modelling, and Art Needlework, and will be under the supervision of Miss M. A. Bailey (Cer. Adelaide and South Kensington, London). The Music, under Miss Parnell, will include Pianoforte, Mandolin, Singing (Italian method), Finger Gymnastics, Harmony, Counterpoint, Composition and Acoustics.
